

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Minnesotans depend on an adequate supply of safe drinking water for their health, quality of life, and economic viability; and
- WHEREAS: Protecting the source of rivers, lakes, and underground supplies of water is the first step in ensuring safe water; and
- WHEREAS: Nutrients such as nitrogen and phosphorus are threats to sustained safe water supplies and an issue that public water systems are addressing with a variety of strategies; and
- WHEREAS: All Minnesotans rely on safe drinking water from public water systems in their homes, schools, and places of work and play; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of May 3-9, 2015, as:

SAFE DRINKING WATER WEEK

in the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 23rd day of April.
