A licensee or certificate holder shall avoid any act that may diminish public confidence in the profession and shall, at all times, conduct himself or herself, in all relations with clients and the public, so as to maintain its reputation for professional integrity. B. A licensee or certificate holder shall be objective and truthful in all professional documents, including but not limited to plans, reports, statements, or testimony. The licensee or certificate holder shall consider relevant and pertinent information in such documents or testimony and express professional opinions publicly only when they are founded upon an adequate knowledge of the facts and a competent evaluation of the subject matter.

A licensee or certificate holder shall provide verification of employment and experience earned by an applicant under supervision if there is reasonable assurance that the facts to be verified are accurate. A licensee or certificate holder shall not knowingly sign a verification document that contains false or misleading information.

Subp. 3a. Knowledge of improper conduct by others. A licensee or certificate holder possessing knowledge of any acts prohibited by this chapter, chapter 1800, or Minnesota Statutes, sections 326.02 to 326.15, by a licensee, certificate holder, or unlicensed individual shall report such knowledge to the board. Upon questioning by the board or its representative during an official inquiry into an alleged act, a licensee or certificate holder shall disclose any knowledge the licensee or certificate holder may have in the matter.

Prior to accepting a project, the licensee or certificate holder shall disclose to a prospective client such facts as may give rise to a conflict of interest.

Subp. 2. Compensation. A licensee or certificate holder shall not accept compensation for services relating or pertaining to the same project from more than one party unless: A. there is a unity of interest between or among the parties to the project; B. the licensee or certificate holder makes full disclosure; and C. the licensee or certificate holder obtains the express consent of all parties from whom compensation will be received.

Subp. 3. Gifts. A. Without the knowledge and approval of the client or the employer, a licensee or certificate holder shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit or accept any compensation, gratuity, or item of value from contractors, their agents, material or equipment suppliers, or other persons dealing with the client or employer in connection with the work for which the licensee or certificate holder has been retained. B. Subp. 4. Interpretations. When acting as the interpreter of project contract documents or as the judge of contract performance, a licensee or certificate holder shall render decisions impartially, using the professional judgment of their licensed or certified discipline.

Subp. 2. Conformance with state and local laws and regulations. When providing professional services, a licensee or certificate holder shall not violate applicable state and local laws and regulations. Notwithstanding the duty of licensees and certificate holders to follow the law, in proceedings before the board, the board shall consider whether a licensee's or certificate holder's violation follows from incorrect advice on the meaning of a statute or regulation. In such a circumstance, the board shall consider the reasonableness of the licensee's or certificate holder's reliance on the incorrect advice in determining the appropriate sanction, if any, for the violation.

Subp. 3. Qualifications for performing professional services. A licensee or certificate holder shall perform professional
