

DISCOVER INTERDEPENDENCE

This film is about one hundred multicultural high school age teens discovering the power that they have in themselves, their ability to reach out and be accepted by their peers, their commitment to reshape their personal and community realities. This is a film about the impact of youth, with and without disabilities, learning and working together to promote mutual respect, beginning the search for inspiring careers, coming to understand the need to promote social justice for themselves and others. It is a film about the growth of awareness that everyone is unique and valuable; a resurgence of the beauty and fineness in every young person when they are convinced they are needed and treasured in this life.

DISCOVER INTERDEPENDENCE is the first step in a training process towards a new generation of youth leaders sponsored by the World Interdependence Fund. It should be seen by all young people from elementary school age through adulthood, their parents, teachers, and community leaders; to demonstrate the power of inclusion, the "power of one," that must prevail in the 21st Century if we are to fulfill our best human destiny, elevate and sustain life on our planet and truly nurture the human spirit.

DISCOVER INTERDEPENDENCE boldly asks: "Given today's realities, what legacy will we adults leave to our children, and their children? Who will accept and carry on the efforts to bring these visions to life? How do we convince our children that life is worth living? That living with love and dedication to ideals matters to anyone? We want to show you a program that makes youth the ultimate voyagers who carry forward our dreams and aspirations."

THE WORLD INTERDEPENDENCE FUND, a nonprofit (501-C3) educational foundation, offers consultation and technical assistance to school and community youth leadership development programs to demonstrate the compelling benefits of integrating all youth as a way of showing:

- The contribution everyone makes to our lives
- The benefits of eliminating physical and cultural barriers, labelling, and stereotyping
- New pathways to success for all people
- The promotion of school, community, and corporate resource sharing
- Youth cooperative learning
