In re Petition for Reinstatement to the Practice of Law of Thomas Robert Ward,
Registration No. 236561.

O R D E R

On January 26, 2007, we indefinitely suspended petitioner Thomas Robert Ward from the practice of law with no right to petition for reinstatement for one year after satisfaction of a judgment entered against him by a former client. In re Ward, 726 N.W.2d 497, 498 (Minn. 2007). Petitioner applied for reinstatement in April 2009 and a hearing on the petition was heard by a panel of the Lawyers Professional Responsibility Board. On September 14, 2010, petitioner provided proof to the court of his successful completion of the professional responsibility portion of the state bar examination.

Based upon all the files, records, and proceedings herein,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Thomas Robert Ward is reinstated to the practice of law and is placed on unsupervised probation for a period of two years from the date of filing of this order, subject to the following terms and conditions:
